David van der Spuy

Manager: Resource Evaluation

Petroleum Agency SA

David has been involved in the South African oil and gas industry for over 22 years. He started his career as a geochemist with SOEKOR and has also worked for Halliburton, and as an independent consultant.

Since late 1999, he has been with Petroleum Agency SA where he has worked as a geochemist and general geologist, mostly on the geology of the Orange Basin off our west coast.

For the last 4 years he has held the position of Resource Evaluation Manager and manages a team responsible for appraising South Africa's offshore resources and promoting South Africa's offshore potential to local and international oil and gas explorers.

He holds degrees in geology, geochemistry and management.
